PRINCIPAL'S REPORT - STAN WIEBE

- Coming to end of 1st semester, positive vibe in school, successful first term.
- A collective thank you from all the Yale clubs for PAC's support.
- Sem 2# Ms. Sargent (music teacher) is returning, music will be back in full swing.
- Hiring more staff based on enrollment numbers, hired 4 staff members 2 teacher positions, 2 temporary teachers, new admin/clerkal hired.
- LED days coming up next week, day has many purposes: helping kids from failing and missed assignments, and help teachers wrap up end of semester.
- Middle of Basketball and Wrestling season 5/6 teams made it to the Abby Police Tournament.
- Do students need to attend LED? It is optional for students who want to attend. Case by case for students who want to better their marks. Optional for students in good standing.
- Boys' bathroom has people vaping. Students do not want to use the bathrooms. Teachers and Principals aim to frequent the bathrooms regularly to monitor activities.

- Kids are concerned about using the bathrooms, afraid they will be lumped with the kids who are vaping.
- Automatic suspension using a vape, caught with a vape.
- Any upcoming assemblies? Feb with CFL (BC Lions) players for the entire school, anti-racism message.
- Anything required for AP students to help with fees? Contact student's VP for info.
- Looking for funding and resources for kids who need support with AP Students. Affordability fund can be accessed.
- Asking how parents can help with donations for students/scholarship, discuss with ACF.
- Also seek Mrs. Wickman in ways she can help support.
