Completed
- Gravel Track Project - based on earlier discussion rough estimate comes in at 500k.
Q: Who is responsible for this? A: School is responsible. Hansen and Bateman are responsible for costs of their rubberized tracks. No new quote yet.
- Vacant Executive Position -Treasurer position. Chad Cowie willing to take on the role. Officially appointed to this role.

CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT | MICHELLE BASTIEN

- Nothing to report

DPAC REPORT | MICHELLE BASTIEN

- The question "Why there are no PE specialists at Middle School?" was brought up by a parent. Michelle will address this at the next DPAC meeting to have a broader discussion. Less interest in sports for kids due to this. Classroom teachers are leading PE classes.
Parent perspective: the difference between a classroom teacher and an actual PE teacher is a travesty and a disservice to the kids, held a general discussion on this topic.
- Next presentation by Fraser Health "Education on Vaping."
- Next meeting: Thursday Nov 27th 7pm on Zoom.

FINANCIAL REPORT

- Gaming Grant came in Oct 3rd, total amount $23,800, see attached report for October.

NEW BUSINESS

- Dry Grade Update: a separate parent and admin committee is working towards the Dry Grad to be held at Yale on Feb 12th in the evening. The committee is seeking donations and help with themed items for the décor. This year's them: Travel & Adventure. Next meeting will be on Dec 10th at 6:30pm, all parent welcome.
- Staff Appreciation Day Dec 16th: Items to include coffee, punch, treats, baked goods. Will meet up 1:30pm. Dee, Michelle and Chad to help support this effort.
- PAC Scholarships: School Counselors have the details about this and help make arrangements.

OPEN FLOOR

- Purdy Sales net income: $747.60, we had close to 3k in sales.
